

Kirkus Reviews Praises "Camp Pock-A-Wocknee and the Dynamite Summer of '77"

"Adolescent romance and mischief animate an endearing, gleefully raunchy coming-of-age tale." - Kirkus Reviews

TORONTO, ON, CANADA, April 4, 2023

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Black Panel Press is excited to announce that "Camp Pock-a-Wocknee and the Dynamite Summer of '77" by Eric Glickman has received a glowing review from Kirkus Reviews, one of the most respected book review publications in the industry.

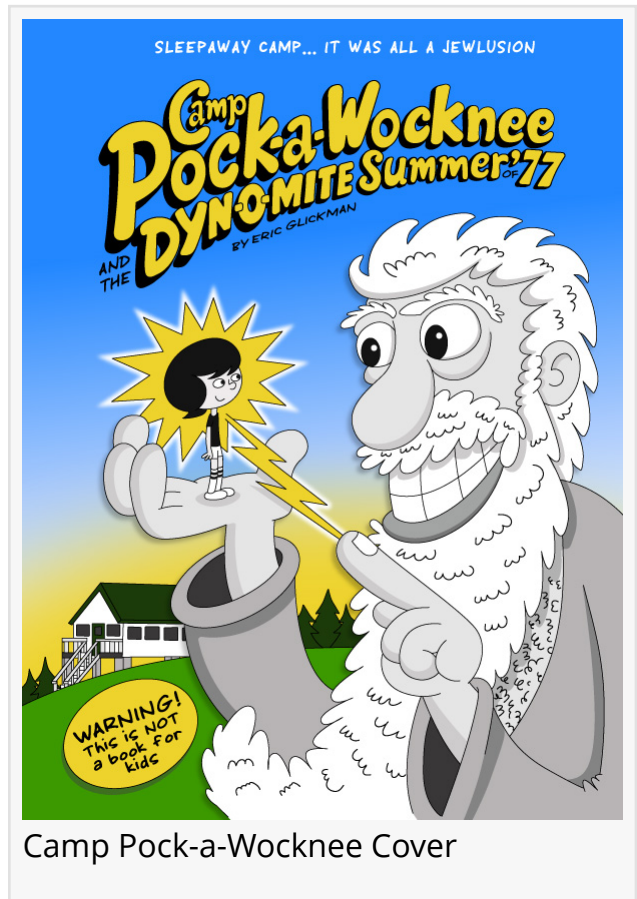

Glickman's writing is described as "a charming, nostalgic slice of adolescence" by Kirkus Reviews. The review concludes by stating that "Glickman's bold black-and-white artwork comically exaggerates features and shines brightest when animating what's in Eric's head, as when the boys, hopped up on sugary cereals, ride metaphorical "sugar beasts."

"We are thrilled that Kirkus Reviews has recognized the quality and appeal of 'Camp Pock-a-Wocknee and the Dynamite Summer of '77'," said Andrew Benteau, Founder of Black Panel Press. "Eric Glickman has crafted a wonderful story that captures the spirit of youth and reminds us all of the power of friendship and adventure. We can't wait for readers to discover this book and fall in love with the characters and nostalgic 70's setting."
