

Staffing Synergies, a Second Chance Employer, Brings Hundreds of Jobs to Under-Privileged Communities

The Minority, Veteran-Owned Company is Bringing Opportunities to Previously Incarcerated Individuals

MATAWAN, NEW JERSEY, UNITED STATES, March 31, 2023

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Staffing Synergies, a full service staffing and human resources company, will open several new locations across the United States by the end of summer, with a primary focus on providing jobs for underprivileged communities and individuals.

As a 100% Minority and Veteran-owned company, one of Staffing Synergies' core values is its commitment to community engagement and employee investment. Staffing Synergies is a second chance employer that provides a diverse and inclusive working environment, offering its valued team members competitive, living wages and prioritizing employee development and advancement to ensure that talent is retained.

Doug Crawley, CEO and President of Staffing Synergies

Currently, Staffing Synergies operates in eight states across the country including New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Illinois, Michigan, Texas, Wisconsin, and California. With this expansion, the company plans to service even more underprivileged communities nationwide.

Our goals are to pay a living wage, provide training and opportunities for career advancement and to find ways to give back to the community"
