“Thank you America for such a warm welcome!” says Anirudh. "We have brought the finest singers, dancers, and musicians to the stage, delivering an exceptional performance that we are immensely proud of. I am excited to be here and I'm ready to go crazy with all of you!"

Those attending the concert will be treated to the best of global entertainment. Complete with another massive South Asian artist named Jonita Gandhi, massive LED screens, unique lighting systems, hydraulics and more the show is impressive to even the most seasoned concertgoers. The 360 concert experience is uniquely designed for those who love to dance along to the music and the innovative choreography that is seen in the film along with those who enjoy the VIP seated experience.

"I am blown away by the opportunity to be performing with Anirudh on his global arena tour," says one of the leading dancers Huruvinth Kankesan. "I have been dancing my whole life and have been working with dancers on this team for many years. It is a big opportunity for us and we are thankful that the show included us and we can represent the US, Canada and my hometown of Toronto."
