The Knights Award 2023 is a prestigious business award event that seeks to recognize the outstanding accomplishments of businesses in South East Asia. The winners of the awards will be celebrated in the Ennoblement Ceremony of the event for their exceptional performance in their respective industries. These leaders are emblematic of excellence, innovation and sustainability. The Knights Award aims to create an elite nexus of leaders to enable cross-border and cross-industry collaborations for maximum market exposure and joint success.

Forming the backbone of this event is the Council of Lords, which consists of many distinguished leaders from various industries and countries. They are, Dato Hj Ismail Nordin, the Deputy Chairman of Supermarket Cooperative Ltd; YBHG. PPJ. Bersekutu (PA) Puan Sri To' Puan Datuk Prof. Dr. Shariffa Sabrina Binti Syed Akil, the President of Women's Sport Fitness Foundation of Malaysia; Datuk Dr Kumararajah, the Council Member of National Chamber of Commerce and Industry of Malaysia; Juan Jose Delgado, the former Chief Marketing Officer of Amazon; Leng Yein, the Malaysia #1 Chinese Female Influencer; Dr. Jon Low, Doctor of Stomatology; and Kelvin Chan Kin Man, a Hong Kong TVB Artiste.

As one of the highlight events of 2023, it signifies the growth and development of the business community that constitutes the pillar of the Malaysian economy. The event promises to be a showcase of the best of Malaysian business standards, and an opportunity to inspire others to strive for excellence and growth.

The Knights Award 2023 will be held at the St. Regis Hotel, Kuala Lumpur, and will feature various categories of awards. The award ceremony promises to be a memorable occasion with the attendance of business leaders, celebrities, key opinion leaders and other significant stakeholders.

Nominations are now open. The Knights Award is committed to discovering outstanding entrepreneurs and businesses irrespective of their company's size or industry, empowering them with effective branding strategies so that they can stand firm in the competitive market. Every entrepreneur deserves recognition and encouragement to succeed. Therefore, we invite all entrepreneurs to submit their entries.
