“Despite the operational disruption experienced by us as the result of the failure of Silicon Valley Bank, I’m pleased to report we were still able to produce respectable revenue growth during an otherwise challenging quarter. The vast majority of our event sales continue to be realized from our website, and we will continue to invest in increasing brand awareness, channeling more resources into driving traffic to our website,” said Robert Smith, President & Master Sommelier.

He added “At the end of the past quarter, we successfully launched Party Bartenders (<https://partybartenders.com>), a second brand targeting a more casual demographic of

Do-it-Yourself Party Hosts. We believe there is a tremendous opportunity to provide Party Hosts with Professional Bartenders, Servers, Chefs and Day-of-Event Coordinators at a fraction of the cost of catering. In time, we expect this segment to eventually dominate our domestic business.”
