BROOKLYN, NY, USA, April 3, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- According to IMARC Group's latest report, titled "Healthcare Chatbots Market: Global Industry Trends, Share, Size, Growth, Opportunity and Forecast 2023-2028," the global healthcare chatbots market size reached US$ 250.9 Million in 2022. Looking forward, IMARC Group expects the market to reach US$ 768.1 Million by 2028, exhibiting a growth rate (CAGR) of 19.8% during 2023-2028.

A healthcare chatbot is a system that is integrated with robotic process automation (RPA) or other automated solutions to help automate the processing of healthcare billing and insurance claims. The chatbot provides patients with an easy gateway to find appropriate information regarding various healthcare and insurance services. It also offers several additional advantages, such as reducing hospital visits, unnecessary treatments and procedures, consultation times, and hospital admissions and re-admissions. Additionally, it promotes anonymity and timely monitoring while improving patient and doctor engagement.

Healthcare Chatbots Market Trends:

The COVID-19 outbreak has significantly surged the demand for chatbots for monitoring patients with mild symptoms and providing hospital-based care on a timely basis. They also offer cognitive-behavioral therapy (CBT) and mental health assistance to people with post-traumatic stress disorder (PTSD), depression, or anxiety, which, in turn, represents one of the primary factors driving the market growth. Apart from this, the rising demand for virtual health assistance and rapid technological developments, such as the integration of machine learning (ML) algorithms and natural language processing (NLP) with healthcare chatbots, is providing a thrust to the market growth. Other factors, such as surging internet access, rapid smartphone penetration, and the rising prevalence of chronic diseases, are boosting the market growth.
