

Rockdale Wreaths Launches Fresh Christmas Wreaths for Decorating Front Doors

JONESPORT, MAINE, UNITED STATES, April 3, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Christmas decorations traditionally consisted of live wreaths and trees rather than plastic decorations. Freshly made wreaths are the perfect natural decoration for the Christmas season.

One of the most common signs that the Christmas season is upon us is when you can start to see fresh green wreaths adorning people's front doors. No Christmas season is truly complete without getting at least one handmade wreath or even making one together as a family. This popular Christmas tradition actually comes from a number of different pagan rituals where wreaths were worn on the head to symbolize victory.

Freshly made Christmas wreaths can elevate the Christmas decoration of any home and add a wonderful touch of classic elegance to it. These wreaths make the front porch look stunning and create an atmosphere of warmth that invites people into the home, as well as revel in the Christmas spirit. Rockdale Wreaths makes some of the most beautiful front-door Christmas wreaths on the market, in a number of different designs and color choices to choose from. Each of Rockdale Wreaths' products is made using pine cones, baby's breath, and a variety of differently patterned and colors ribbons. These 24" Christmas wreaths all feature simple yet elegant designs, with each bow being tied by hand. Different type of fir is used in the process of handcrafting these wreaths, but each one of Rockdale's wreaths weighs in at about 4 lbs.

Some of their most popular products include the Country Elegance wreath, Celtic Christmas wreath, Country Christmas wreath, and the Classic Christmas wreath. The prices for these wreaths can range from $60 to $80. You can even find Cross and candy cane-shaped wreaths, instead of the traditional circular ones.
