Business Awards UK's Director, Dan Trindade, said "Our inaugural Recruitment Awards showcased some of the very best of the industry, celebrating the achievements, innovations, diversity and spotlighting individuals who have demonstrated excellence in recruitment practices. From disruptive sourcing strategies to exceptional candidate experience, the winners have demonstrated outstanding performance and commitment to raising the bar in the recruitment industry.

"I have been thoroughly impressed by the calibre of entries we received and the level of competition amongst entrants. It is clear that the recruitment industry is constantly evolving, and these awards serve as a testament to the dedication and hard work of those who are driving this progress."

Co-Director, Mark Byrne, also added, "We are thrilled to have recognised so many outstanding companies and individuals in the Recruitment Awards 2022, and we believe that their achievements will inspire others to strive for excellence in recruitment practices. We look forward to continuing to celebrate the achievements of the recruitment industry in future editions of these awards.
