Since being crowned Miss Pennsylvania in 2022, Ms. Bainbridge has made multiple school visits, speaking with students about her family's story and helping them understand that they can reach out for help if needed.

Kitay Law Offices is dedicated to supporting initiatives that raise awareness for mental health issues and encouraging people not to be ashamed or afraid of seeking help when needed. By sponsoring Miss Pennsylvania's More Than Project, Kitay Law Offices hopes to bring a greater community. Ms. Bainbridge was inspired to create The More Than Project following her brother's tragic battle with an untreated mental illness that resulted in a fatal opioid overdose in 2018.

Miss Pennsylvania travels to schools throughout the region to help eliminate the stigma surrounding mental health issues. “We are proud to support Ms. Bainbridge and the Miss PA Scholarship Foundation in bringing this important issue to the youth in our region,” said Kenneth Kitay, understanding of how mental health affects our society as well as provide access to necessary resources for those struggling with mental health issues in our community.
