powerful tools, Azerbaijani companies optimize their operations and achieve sustainable growth. CloudOffix is committed to empowering digital leaders in Azerbaijan to shape the future of worklife and drive success in the digital age.

CloudOffix, a major player in the SaaS industry, is well-regarded for its exceptional flexibility and ability to be tailored to specific needs. Its software solutions have aided businesses across various sectors in their digital transformation journeys, leading to superior customer experiences.

CloudOffix is committed to optimizing the overall experience, including employee, customer, digital, and user experiences. This holistic approach ensures that all aspects of the experience are optimized for maximum effectiveness and efficiency.

Gokhan Erdogan, the CEO of CloudOffix, expressed his excitement about the company's new partnership with Agile Solutions. According to Erdogan, the partnership will provide Azerbaijani businesses with the necessary digital tools and strategies to not only survive, but thrive in today's ever-changing business environment. Erdogan emphasized the importance of customer experience as a holistic concept, encompassing more than just customer service, and highlighted CloudOffix's unique vision for digitalizing Azerbaijani businesses.

We have successfully implemented numerous digital transformation projects for our clients. CloudOffix has a well-established reputation for providing exceptional customer experience and driving digitalization. CloudOffix's solutions are cost-effective, sustainable, and widely preferred by businesses during digital transformation. This partnership allows Azerbaijani businesses to access the latest digital technologies, enabling them to develop greater experiences and achieve growth.

Ilgar Alizada, CEO of Agile Solutions, said, "We, at Agile Solutions, build software and provide professional software development services. A wide range of customers including finance, banking, and government organizations use our OmniCloud Contact Center and Dialer platform, as well as AgDoc ECM platform. But we had to reject customer requests for CRM solutions for a long time due to the lack of such a product in our portfolio.

Then we met CloudOffix. The CRM/CX platform they offer provides useful and widely customizable tools to fulfill company needs through growth and digitalization. CloudOffix's another important value is their team with unprecedented support at each step of the partnership journey."
