The Canoga Park Community Center and the Canoga Park • West Hills Chamber state, "The parade is an opportunity for our community to come together in appreciation and gratitude for the heroes and their families who have made tremendous sacrifices to protect our freedom."

This year's parade promises an exceptional display of patriotism and unity, with an impressive lineup of patriotic floats, music, community leaders, and, most importantly, the heroes and families of heroes who have courageously served our country.

For people interested in participating in the parade or sponsoring a lamppost banner, please visit www.CanogaParkMemorialDayParade.com or call Bill Ratner at (818) 414-2700.

We are especially honored to welcome the 562nd Air Force Band to the ceremony. The Air National Guard Band of the West Coast, under the command of Major Silas Huff, serves as musical ambassadors for the state of California and the United States Air Force. Stationed at Channel Islands Air National Guard Station in Port Hueneme, CA, the band is part of the 146th Airlift Wing, which supports missions such as Airborne Firefighting, Air Mobility, and Medical Evacuation. Despite meeting only two days a month to rehearse and perform, the Air Force Band embarks on a two-week summer tour to fulfill its mission of honoring those who have served, inspiring Americans with patriotism and service, and connecting with the global community on behalf of the U.S. Air Force and the United States of America.
