

Black Belt Community Foundation Announces 2023 Arts Grant Cycle

Grants made possible by continuing support from Alabama State Council on the Arts and the National Endowment for the Arts

SELMA, ALABAMA, UNITED STATES, April 5, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Black Belt Community Foundation (BBCF) is excited to announce its 2023 Arts Grant Cycle. Community-based organizations from Bullock, Choctaw, Dallas, Greene, Hale, Lowndes, Macon, Marengo, Perry, Pickens, Sumter, and Wilcox Counties are encouraged to apply.

The BBCF aims to support organizations who engage citizens from the Black Belt region in the arts. The 2023 Arts Grant Cycle seeks to support efforts in the following categories: in-school, after-school, community-based, and summer arts education programs, presenting and/or producing arts programming and attending professional development conferences. The BBCF will offer funding as follows:

- Grants with funding up to $3,000 will cover in-school, after-school, community-based, and summer arts education programs, presenting and/or producing arts programming and attending professional development conferences.

BBCF will be hosting five Virtual Grant Seeking Workshops for the organizations who are interested in applying for a 2023 Arts Grant. Attendance at one of the virtual workshops is mandatory in order to be considered for a 2023 Arts Grant. The Virtual Grant seeking workshops will be held via Zoom on the following dates:

- Zoom, Tuesday, April 11th from 6:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m. CDT
- Zoom, Thursday, April 13th from 11:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. CDT
- Zoom, Tuesday, April 18th from 6:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m. CDT

The poster features a vibrant rainbow background with musical notes and a silhouette of a person dancing. It includes logos for the Black Belt Community Foundation, Alabama State Council on the Arts, and the National Endowment for the Arts. A QR code is present for registration.
