The time has come to ask a broader audience for help to ensure the resources we provide and share with our community partners are available for generations to come.”

D'Andre Lampkin

The D'Andre D. Lampkin Foundation is a non-profit organization that provides volunteer opportunities, educational programs, and grassroots civic engagement projects for underserved communities in the southern Los Angeles and San Bernardino County areas. The organization was founded in 2017 by D'Andre Lampkin, a Los Angeles native, law enforcement officer, City Planning Commissioner, and healthcare entrepreneur.

“The Community Resilience Gala is a celebration of all the work the organization put in to build resilience in the communities we served,” said D'Andre Lampkin, for whom the Foundation is named. “In our first five years, many people have contributed to building this organization to where it is today. We now have a community classroom, community workspace, regional food pantry, seasonal educational programs, and
