

Alpaca Keyboards Announces the Launch of the Wireless WhiteFox Eclipse on Kickstarter

*A Redesigned Mechanical Keyboard
Featuring Innovative Gasket Mounted
Design*

SAN FRANCISCO, CA, USA, April 6, 2023

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Alpaca

Keyboards is creating a sequel to the highly successful WhiteFox mechanical keyboard that raised close to $400,000 during its initial Kickstarter campaign, and is thrilled to announce the launch of its newest product, the wireless mechanical keyboard comes with a wide variety of new features, including the game-changing Gasket Mounted Floating Design.

WhiteFox Eclipse. This redesigned 65%

The WhiteFox Eclipse Kickstarter campaign aims to raise funds for production and offer early backers the opportunity to purchase the keyboard at a special discounted price. The keyboard's estimated retail price will be around $150, but early backers can secure theirs for between $120 during the group buy / launch phase.

We're proud to introduce our groundbreaking magnetic gasket architecture, which not only allows for a floating keyboard chassis but also offers DIY enthusiasts the flexibility to modify the keyboard.”

Kunal Kumar

Founder Kunal Kumar shares his excitement about the innovative Gasket Mounted Floating Design: "Our team at Alpaca Keyboards is always striving to push the boundaries of what a mechanical keyboard can offer. With the WhiteFox Eclipse, we're proud to introduce our groundbreaking magnetic gasket architecture, which not only allows for a floating keyboard chassis but also offers DIY enthusiasts the flexibility to modify the feel of their keyboard.”

The WhiteFox Eclipse offers several remarkable features, such as:

Gasket Mounted Floating Design
Double Gasket Design: Edge Gasket and Magnetic Gaskets
Unifying White Color Scheme
Bluetooth 5.0 and Wired Functionality
Cherry Profile PBT Keycaps
Standardized 68% Layout
RGB LEDs with Underglow
Hotswap Mechanical Switches
Configurable using VIA or QMK
Firmware and Keycaps for MAC, Windows, and Linux
