My Family Matters' Foundation's mission is providing financial assistance for families with children fighting cancer

PEMBROKE PINES, FL, UNITED STATES, April 6, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- SOUTH FLORIDA BROADCASTER'S CELEBRITY GOLF TOURNAMENT MAY 5, 2023, VIP CINCO DE MAYO CELEBRATION WITH LIVE RADIO BROADCAST TO BENEFIT MY FAMILY MATTERS FOUNDATION

Cancer nearly silenced the voice of national radio powerhouse Doc Reno. In the spring of 2018, Doc Reno was diagnosed with Stage 4 cancer. During 35 rounds of radiation and six rounds of rigorous chemo, he never missed one of his daily shows. He was hospitalized twice. "I met nurses and doctors and heard stories, people who were struggling financially. I learned there are programs that help you with medical bills, but they don't pay your house payment or your car payment or buy groceries.” Doc Reno was moved by the parents and family members who missed work to take their child or relative to the countless medical appointments required for successful cancer treatment. Often, the caregiver's pay is docked.

It also led the dynamo media personality to launch the My Family Matters Foundation to fill a heart-breaking need he encountered during his treatment and recovery. “I wanted to create my own foundation because nobody is going to be more passionate about it than I am,” he says. My Family Matters' Foundation's mission is providing financial assistance for families with children fighting cancer. A 501c3 Non-Profit Organization.

Doc Reno's longstanding work with Joe DiMaggio's Children's Hospital led to My Family Matters' successful partnership with the hospital's foundation. Proceeds of this Golf Tournament will be allocated for My Family Matters Foundation, a 501(c)(3) Non-Profit Charity Organization. Together with Joe DiMaggio's Children's Hospital Foundation, we provide financial assistance for families with Children fighting cancer.

The 2nd Annual South Florida Broadcasters Golf Tournament will be held at Pembroke Lakes Country Club on May 5, 2023. The golf tournament includes a VIP Celebration of Cinco De Mayo for the golfers playing in the tournament. This spectacular golf tournament includes a live radio broadcast. Meet some South Florida's most well-known and respected members of our community from Radio Broadcasters to Rock Stars and Athletes as we work together to fundraise for My Family Matters Foundation.
