

EDRM Announces ModeOne as Newest Trusted Partner

MINNEAPOLIS, MN, USA, April 10, 2023

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Setting the global standards for e-discovery, the Electronic Discovery Reference Model (EDRM) is pleased to announce ModeOne Technologies, Inc. ("ModeOne"), the developer of a revolutionary SaaS tool that automates the remote collection and analysis of mobile data stored on smartphones, has joined the EDRM Trusted Partner Network.

As organizations continue to rely on electronic data, eDiscovery technology and services will play a central role in helping them manage their legal and compliance obligations. Robust e-discovery technology, supported by expertise and services, helps organizations respond to litigation, compliance and investigation demands. In a new era of remote work at scale, organizations need to securely manage information, protect confidential and privileged access and collaborate effectively to be efficient and productive and adhere to the increasingly complex demands of security and data privacy frameworks.

"I am truly honored to be invited to join the EDRM Global Advisory Council on behalf of ModeOne," said Matthew Rasmussen, founder and CEO at ModeOne. "As a former end-user and now leading provider of cutting-edge solutions, I am excited to collaborate with esteemed colleagues and thought leaders to drive innovation and advance best practices. I look forward to sharing ModeOne's unique perspectives and expertise and working together to shape the future of e-discovery and information governance."

Among the EDRM opportunities and resources available to partners like ModeOne are the ability to connect, network and contribute via EDRM projects and events, share their service and
