

Public Sector Network Introduces 2023-24 Leadership Advisory Board

Public Sector Network has convened a group of Senior Level Public Sector Leaders to help guide our events and new initiatives dedicated to the US Public Service

UNITED STATES, April 12, 2023

/EINPresswire.com/ -- The Public Sector Network (PSN) Leadership Advisory

Board will help to inform, inspire, and encourage public sector leaders to discuss governance, policy, and procedural initiatives related to advancing Leadership across the public sector at the state, local, tribal, territorial, and federal levels. This dedicated community of public sector peers will focus on identifying and developing opportunities for support, ideation, and learning from public sector professionals who are dedicated to building leadership across communities and ensuring a bright future for all citizens and residents.

The targeted areas for development in 2023-24 include:

- Partnership with Indiana University's Hamilton Luger School of Global & International Studies
- Identifying and integrating unaddressed public sector challenges into PSN programming for 2023 and beyond
- Convene senior public sector leaders across jurisdictions and departments to develop broad based solutions to societal challenges
- Magnify the scope and reach of our Advisory Board Members and of PSN to reach, engage, and collaborate with current and future Public Sector Leaders

The 2023-24 Advisory Board members include:

- Scott Beliveau, Chief of Enterprise Advanced Analytics, USPTO
- Adam Carpenter, Chief Data Officer, State of Montana
