

Compass Intelligence Announces 11th Annual Award Winners in IoT, Mobile, Business Tech, and Emerging Tech

CompassIntel.com announces 43 award winning companies and organizations for the 11th Annual CompassIntel Awards in mobile/business tech, IoT, and emerging tech.

SAN ANTONIO, TX, UNITED STATES,
April 12, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ --

Compass Intelligence is proud to announce the award winners of the 11th annual CompassIntel Awards to honor the top companies, products, and technology solutions in mobile, IoT, business tech and emerging technology industries. This year we received 98 nominations coming in from companies, public relations, and corporate communications firms, editors, journalists, analysts, and other colleagues. These awards, excluding the Compass Intelligence selected awards, were voted on by a group of leading industry-leading press, editors, journalists, thought leaders, and analysts in early April. A total of 43 awardees are being recognized, including 3 Compass selected awards.

"In a very challenging and competitive technology environment, it is an honor to recognize leading companies, innovations, and products" shares Stephanie Atkinson, CEO & founder of Compass Intelligence. "This year we are hyper-focused on core technologies elevating business and enterprise operations, and this round of company participants certainly met this goal. Congratulations to this year's award recipients."

The award recipients of the 11th Annual Compass Intelligence Awards are as follows:
