

Istituto Marangoni Miami Announces Partnership with Stitch Lab

The incubator for Latin American design kicks off in the Miami Design District this week boasting new partnership with neighborhood institution Marangoni Miami

MIAMI, FLORIDA, USA, April 10, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Istituto Marangoni Miami is pleased to announce a partnership with Stitch Lab, a yearly pop-up showcasing up-and-coming designers hailing from all corners of Latin America. The three-day event will kick off with a private fashion show on Thursday, April 13th, for which Marangoni Miami's top students from the school's undergraduate BA in Fashion Styling program will be assisting lead project stylist, Pamela Garcia.

The following day, Friday April 14th, the participating designers spanning from Peru, Argentina, Colombia, Ecuador, El Salvador, Venezuela, Dominican Republic, Mexico and Brazil, will be attending a special class at Istituto Marangoni Miami on The Creative Process imparted by Eyan Allen, course leader of the Master's Programs at IMM. Allen is a British Fashion designer who graduated at the Royal College of Art in London with a Masters in Fashion Menswear and BA in Fashion & Textiles with over 25 years of experience. During this time, he has held key leadership positions such as Creative Director for both Puma International and Nike Europe, as well as Creative Director for HUGO BOSS Men's and Women's collections. His timeless approach to modern tailoring, combined with his profound knowledge of leisure and sportswear translated effortlessly to become best sellers for the HUGO BOSS brand.

Eyan will provide the designer students with a global understanding for visionary trend and modern fashion and a process for which to harness and direct their creative ambitions.
