

Thousands Joined the Church of Scientology for an Annual Easter Festival

L. Ron Hubbard Way reverberated with the excitement of thousands of children at a family-friendly Easter celebration for the East Hollywood community.

LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA, UNITED STATES, April 11, 2023

/EINPresswire.com/ -- As the clock struck noon on April 9, squeals and laughter filled the neighborhood as thousands of children raced in the Easter egg hunt hosted by the Church of Scientology on L. Ron Hubbard Way.

So many youngsters lined up for the race for the 25,000 Easter eggs and 24 special golden eggs that the Church organized three separate events—one of them just for the youngest, age 0-3.

But the day wasn't over yet. There was plenty of time for the animal petting zoo, sack racing, and doughnut-eating contests, face painting and all-you-can-eat popcorn and cotton candy. For those more artistically inclined there was egg decorating. And there was ample time left over to play in the bouncy houses.

Live music included a special appearance of Britain's No. 1 Jive and Swing Band and BGT semifinalists The Jive Aces.
