SURPLUS AGENTS
— FOR AMERICANS —

Surplus Agents for Americans has already helped numerous clients in Florida recover their surpluses with minimal hassle. The company provides additional services such as credit repair, negotiating new leases, and removing foreclosure information from the internet, making it easier for clients to start fresh. With a team of lawyers handling all aspects of the process, clients can expect to receive their funds quickly.

The founder of Surplus Agents for Americans, Kathleen Perez, is the daughter of a Vietnam veteran and real estate investor. She brings a unique blend of personal experience, compassion, and efficiency to her clients. The company's mission is to empower its clients to reclaim their surpluses, and it is committed to helping all Americans achieve this goal.

Surplus Agents for Americans is excited to expand its services and help more Americans start fresh. The company's diverse team, which includes LGBTQ+ members, has first-hand experience with the challenges faced by its clients. The name "Surplus Agents for Americans" reflects the company's commitment to empowering all Americans to reclaim what they are owed.
