

IBA Group Shortlisted for 2023 IT Europa Channel Awards

IT Europa shortlisted IBA Group as a finalist for the IT Europa Channel Awards in the category Cyber Security Managed Service of the Year

PRAGUE, CZECH REPUBLIC, April 12, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- IT Europa shortlisted IBA Group as a finalist for IT Europa Channel Awards in the category Cyber Security Managed Service of the Year. For this year's contest, IBA Group submitted a solution designed to conduct security coding training autonomously and on a regular basis. The embedded AI technology provides instantaneous support to users in terms of information security.

The solution enabled the client to raise awareness of their developers about secure software development practices, to motivate employees to follow these practices, and to create a corporate environment conducive to security practices. It was the first IBA Group's submission in the Cyber Security section of the IT Europa Channel Awards.

It was a fantastic year with a great number of entries, making it a challenging task to select the finalists from such an exceptional pool of submissions.”

*Will Garside, IT Europa's
Editorial Director*

Will Garside, IT Europa's Editorial Director, said: “It was a fantastic year with a great number of entries, making it a challenging task to select the finalists from such an exceptional pool of submissions.”

Highlighting the best of European software, information, and communication technologies, the IT Europa Channel Awards are designed to recognize and reward excellence in UK and European channels.

In 2023, the contest broke a new record with over 350 applications from 18 different countries across Europe, including multinational suppliers and innovative startups.

IT Europa will announce the winners of each category at the IT Europa Channel Awards Dinner in London on May 18, 2023.

About IT Europa Channel Awards

A leading pan-European contest for solution providers, managed service providers, vendors, and distributors, the IT Europa Channel Awards, formerly the European IT & Software Excellence Awards, reward excellence in software development among European IT and telecommunication solution providers.

The 2023 Awards are split into the following four groups.

- Solution Provider: for managed service providers (MSPs), value-added resellers (VARs), and integrators, with attention given to the solutions they have developed
- Cyber Security: for providers that strive to support their partners in achieving cyber security
- Supplier & Distribution: for suppliers, highlighting those vendors, distributors, and service providers that strive to support their partners in achieving excellence
- Special Awards: for companies that have shown exceptional initiatives in corporate culture, channel marketing, and channel leadership.
