

The Society for Diversity Calls for 2023 Neurodiversity Summit: Wired for Success Award Nominations

Recognizing innovative and sustainable strategies that enable neurodivergent successes

INDIANAPOLIS, IN, UNITED STATES, April 13, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Society for Diversity is now accepting nominations for the 2023 Neurodiversity Summit: Wired for Success Awards. The awards will recognize organizations and individuals who have made significant contributions to the advancement of neurodiversity in the workplace.

The Neurodiversity Summit: Wired for Success is a two-day virtual event that will take place on October 19-20, 2023. The summit will bring together leaders, innovators, and advocates from across the neurodiversity spectrum to discuss the latest research, best practices, and strategies for creating a more inclusive world.

The awards ceremony will be held on the afternoon of October 20. There are three award categories:

- Neurodiversity Employee Inclusion: Recognizes inclusive recruitment and retention practices and processes.
- Responsible Neurodivergent Design: Recognizes holistic approaches to innovation, user experience, research, and development by applying a neurodivergent lens to testing, design, and/or development.
- Neurodiversity in Management: Recognizes training and professional development to management teams on neurodiversity, interventions, successes, etc.

To be eligible, nominees must be members of The Society for Diversity and have made significant contributions to the advancement of neurodiversity in the workplace. Nominations are due by August 3, 2023. To view complete eligibility criteria and to submit a nomination,
