

ANDREA LAMBERSTON: THE MOVEMENT GAME

Andrea Lambertson shares her craft in writing in her latest book, The Movement Game: New Edition.

YORBALINDA, CALIFORNIA, USA, April 13, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- "The Movement Game: New Edition" by Andrea Lambertson is a children's book that tells a story about their school experiences and encounters with their P. E. subject in a brand-new game called "Movement" that they learned. The children were thrilled and continued to dream while they played the game.

The Movement Game: New Edition

As one would browse through the pages, it displays beautifully colored and well-done illustrations drawn by New York-based artist Linda M. Gangian. Children will be drawn to the book and be thrilled to pick it up and read it with their heart's desire, as the plot is something that all elementary schoolers resonate with. "The Movement Game" is the ideal present for school-age children as it will push them to come to school and show them that learning can be enjoyable and educational at the same time.

It is no wonder that author Andrea Lambertson has the talent of her craft in writing as she belongs to a family of creatives. Andrea attended Cambridge College in Boston, Massachusetts, after completing her high school education at Coxsackie-Athens High School in Coxsackie, New York. Lambertson has been fortunate to discover a new ability for composing poems and other types of writing thanks to her innovative teaching style. She also became a participant on the board of directions at Boston University Sargent College and a Kappa Kappa Gamma National Sorority Alumni.

Know more about the wonders of the game "Movement" by purchasing the book "The Movement Game" Book by Andrea Lambertson by purchasing it on Amazon, Barnes & Nobles, Thriftstones, Better World Books and other digital bookstores worldwide.
