Shuttle & Transit VP of Business Development*

Stephany Garcia, Leyden Mendez and Alfonso Reyes have been selected for the Latinos In Transit Leadership Academy (LITLA) class of 2023. The program gives public and private sector participants opportunities to learn about management practices, finance, procurement, labor relations and regulatory compliance in public transportation from industry leaders.

The company also renewed its Diamante membership with Latinos In Transit (LIT) through 2024, underscoring both organizations' shared commitment to advancing and developing Latinos and other minorities in transportation.

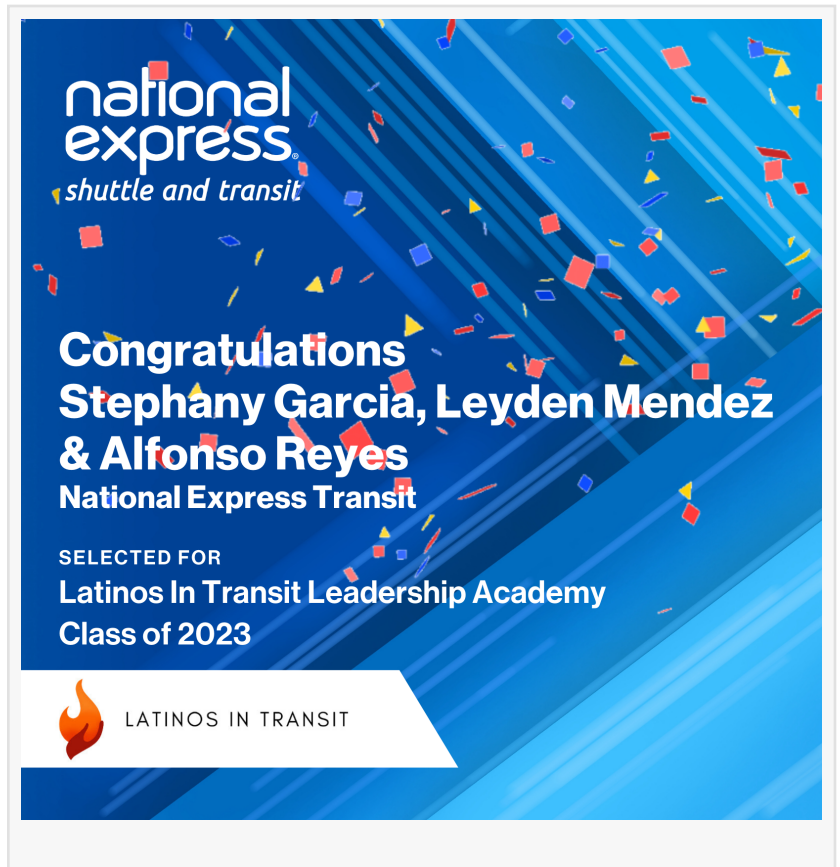

"National Express is passionate about cultivating opportunities and connections for Latina and Latino colleagues who are adding value for our customers and our industry," said Rick Pulido, National Express Shuttle and Transit Vice President of Business Development and LIT Board Member. "We're excited to expand our partnership and see this new class of leaders thriving in their transit careers alongside National Express Transit General Managers who graduated from the inaugural Academy in 2022."

In a press release about the program, LIT Vice President of the Board of Directors and LITLA Committee Chair Herold Humphrey remarked, "We could not be more excited to bring forward the participants of our second leadership academy. We continue to promote the advancement and development of Latinos and other minorities in transportation and the academy provides a great platform for us to do so."
