

AMERICA'S MOST PATRIOTIC MARKETING AGENCY LAUNCHES TEAMS IN THREE MORE STATES, ANNOUNCES INTENT TO LEAVE CONNECTICUT

EAST GRANBY, CT, UNITED STATES, April 13, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Silent Partner Marketing has expanded its operations and has spread to three more states. Currently headquartered in Connecticut, the agency has now added teams in Tennessee, Georgia and Texas.

"Notice the one thing these states have in common: freedom," said Kyle S. Reyes, the CEO of The Silent Partner Marketing. "They're states that love God, family, guns and freedom. They're states with booming economies and huge growth opportunities for our marketing agency, which has exploded in the conservative community."

Well known for its strong political views, The Silent Partner Marketing does not shy away from its conservative values and has found it difficult finding talent in a state that doesn't share those views.

Reyes said, "You ever try and hire someone in Connecticut? You've got about as good a shot at finding a decent employee as you do making it a block without seeing a clown in a double mask. Common sense, parental rights, and traditional values are under attack in the state of Connecticut. But hey - at least the state has a fake Vietnam vet named Blumenthal handing out Communist awards and a glorified clown show named Murphy fighting to remove school resource officers despite one of the worst school shootings in history occurring in Newtown. Yeah. We're out."

In addition to bringing on new teams, The Silent Partner Marketing is moving its headquarters to Florida, one of the most prominent and thriving conservative states in America.

"We're relocating from Connecticut to Florida because we believe in radical concepts like protecting children, keeping economies open, voter integrity, low taxes and a governor who understands the inherent difference between America and a Banana Republic," Reyes said.

Although the company has been undergoing rapid growth and expansion despite being in Connecticut, Reyes and his leadership team anticipate more success in Florida. His team stands ready to take on more clients, but wishes to be among a like-minded community, like Florida.
