VANCOUVER, BRITISH COLUMBIA, CANADA, April 18, 2023

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Everything Podcasts today announced the debut of California Closets' first podcast hosted by celebrated interior designer and television personality, Jeremiah Brent. Designed by California Closets, the Ideas of Order podcast features Brent in candid conversations with a variety of insightful friends to discuss the integral spaces that shaped them and what it means to feel at home.

With every unexpected story or sentimental insight, Ideas of Order displays a nourishing vulnerability for all to enjoy.

Over the course of the first season's eight episodes, listeners can unwind with Athena Calderone on the intrinsic warmth of a well-loved space, indulge with Queer Eye star Tan France on the integral role of marginalized visibility and the importance of representation in the world of fashion, and reminisce alongside Vogue icon Rachel Zoe on the importance of beautiful spaces and the unpredictability of our individual life journeys. With additional iconic guests including Schitt's Creek star Emily Hampshire to design legend Brigitte Romanek, this podcast celebrates the growth and connections experienced in the spaces that make each of us unique.

Everything Podcasts Founder and CEO, Jennifer Smith, says "I couldn't be more excited about a show than this one. Jeremiah knows how to capture what's most important about our guests past and present in an exceptionally heartfelt way. Never has the phrase 'home is where the heart is' rang more true than in the studio hearing Jeremiah open up to his guests' most profound and heartwarming vulnerabilities. A triumph from start to finish."

“This podcast is an important channel for California Closets to extend conversations around what it means to belong and feel at home in the world. We have long admired Jeremiah’s empathy and human-centered approach to design, and we are thrilled to collaborate with him—his compassion brings this storytelling to life,” says Charlie Chase, President and CEO, California Closets.

Ideas of Order takes its name from California Closets’ award-winning annual Brand magazine. The publication, much like the podcast series, celebrates our homes as sources of comfort and calm. The latest Vol. 5 edition explores our deep connection to where and how we live, capturing the stories and spaces that make room for who we are, the things we appreciate, and the people we love. Introducing a podcast into the Ideas of Order ecosystem allows for even deeper conversations and explorations about home and heart.

“Conversation is the birthplace of connection – crafting each episode for Ideas of Order has been so refreshing as it’s given me the opportunity to ‘sit next to’ some of the most thoughtful and gifted people I know. This dialogue has led me to a deeper understanding of home and how it not only shapes who we are, but who we’re meant to be.”
