powered by Witherite Law Group, is proud to share their sponsorship of the upcoming Young Ladies Inspired and Empowered Conference at Crete-Monee High School, 1515 W Exchange St, Crete, IL 60417, hosted by Crete-Monee School District 201-U's Community Mentor Committee, on Saturday, April 15th from 10am – 2pm. Funded solely by 1-800-TruckWreck, the conference welcomes 150 girls for a day of panels and networking featuring female leaders and businesswomen to inspire career-driven young ladies.

"It's integral to our company mission to support the communities we are a part of," said Amy Witherite, founder of Witherite Law Group and 1-800-TruckWreck. "We're very excited and proud to support a local public high school by providing an opportunity to introduce young ladies to successful, career-driven women to help inspire them for their future careers."

The conference will feature three different panels with four panelists leading each. The powerful discussions will be treated as an open conversation between the women and young girls to encourage a safe space to ask questions. They include:

- Be Your Own Boss: Entrepreneurship, Dress to Impress, Women in Leadership, and Mentorship – led by Wanikka Clark – Founder of Kabillionaire Academy, Johnetta Miller – District #147 Superintendent, Sydney Hart – Digital Strategist of The League, and Dr. Angel White – doctoral prepared Family Nurse Practitioner as they discuss what it means to be a "boss," how to brand yourself in a positive way, the benefits of having a mentor, dressing to impress (and on a budget!), developing business etiquette, do's and don'ts of marketing yourself, and more.
- I Am Enough: Mental Health/Self Love, Hygiene, and Social Media Presence – led by Dr. Katrice

Brooks – Family Practice Specialist, Dr. Dewana Taylor – Educator for Chicago Public Schools & Moraine Valley, Dr. Marietta Hebert Davis – Professional Nurse and Ordained Clergy, and Kathleen Reutter – Lead Security Officer and Crete-Monee Middle School’s 8th-grade Basketball Coach for Crete-Monee School District 201-U as they discuss how social media can impact your future career, adapting to a changing body, pushing through when you’re unmotivated, handling rejection, the importance of boundaries, and more.

- Empower Your Voice: My Sister’s Keeper and Relationship Resources – led by Yvonee Hall – Owner of Ashley’s Beauty bar, Renee Chavez – Executive Director of Crete-Monee Park District, Bridgette Simmons – Communications Specialist at Posen-Robbins School District, and Maya Hightower – Director of Community Relations at Witherite Law Group as they discuss speaking up for yourself and finding your voice, healthy vs. unhealthy behaviors in friendships, the real harm of gossip, handling disrespect, and more.

Doors open for the conference at 9:30 a.m. with a welcome breakfast and opening words from Superintendent Dr. Kara Coglianesse & Mrs. Keyyana Riley, Director of Behavioral Intervention Programs for the Crete-Monee School District 201-U at Crete-Monee High School at 10:00 a.m. Panel sessions will take place from 10:30 a.m. – 1:30 p.m. with a lunch break scheduled before the final panel. A keynote speech by Judge Jessica Colon-Sayre will close out the conference at 1:25 p.m. with final words from Keely Childress – Village of University Park Director.

Crete-Monee School District 201-U is located in a dynamic, largely professional, south suburban community and serves the communities of Crete, University Park, Monee, and Park Forest. With a growing population of approximately 4,300 students in grades K-12, Crete-Monee School District 201-U represents a wide range of social, cultural, and religious backgrounds.
