

DDK Marketing Revolutionizes Jewelry Marketing with OnSite: A Cutting-Edge, Targeted Marketing Solution for Jewelers

DDK Marketing's OnSite is a groundbreaking technology designed to empower jewelers with a unique and effective alternative to conventional online digital ads.

CHICAGO, IL, USA, April 14, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- DDK Marketing proudly presents OnSite, a groundbreaking technology specifically designed to empower jewelers with a unique and effective alternative to conventional online digital ads. Leveraging the power of targeted keyword searches, OnSite enables jewelry businesses to establish direct connections with online prospects who are actively searching for their products.

What sets OnSite apart is its advanced algorithm, which accurately identifies potential customers based on their jewelry-related search terms and verifies their details, guaranteeing that businesses engage with only the most relevant and qualified prospects. This precision targeting allows jewelers to deliver tailored messages and offers through direct mail, email, and even Facebook ads, resulting in an exceptional return on investment and increased sales.

Kent Hallgren, President of DDK Marketing, emphasizes the game-changing nature of OnSite: "Would you rather continue to pay for a digital ad that is delivered to some anonymous source, or pay to connect to a real known active prospect who is actively looking online for your product? To us, the choice is simple."

OnSite's pricing structure is straightforward, with a "per contact" fee and no setup or subscription fees. The program is easy to implement and manage through a user-friendly ordering portal designed for each participating jewelry store. For optimal results, DDK Marketing recommends consistent utilization over a period of 12 months.

With a legacy of over 35 years in direct mail and more than 30 million mailers delivered within the jewelry industry, DDK Marketing is committed to helping businesses convert promising prospects into loyal, lifelong clients.
