

FROM SWITZERLAND, TO NYC, TO #1; LOHRASP KANSARA'S LATEST AFRO HOUSE RELEASE, "NDAU" TAKES OVER BEATPORT'S TOP 10 CHARTS

NDAU is a testament to the talented artist's ingenuity, creativity and musical prowess - NDAU will take you on an exhilarating ride.

NEW YORK, NEW YORK, UNITED STATES, April 15, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Lohrasp Kansara, a multi-talented musician, actor, and entrepreneur, has done it again with his latest release, NDAU. In just under a week after its debut, NDAU skyrocketed to the #1 spot on the Beatport Top Ten Releases, #1 on the new Afro House Releases, and #9 on the Afro House Beatport Top 10 charts which attests to Kansara's exceptional production skills and passion for music. Kansara is a true entertainer, who has played over 5000 shows globally, including some of the biggest festivals and venues in the world, such as Ultra Europe Festival, Madison Square Garden in NYC, and Illuzion Phuket, which currently ranks #15 in the TOP 100 Clubs by DJMAG.

He is a versatile artist that produces and plays multiple genres, which consist primarily of Afro House and Tech House but, he can also play big room main stage tracks when the occasion calls for it. Apart from NDAU, Kansara has had 4 other singles that cracked the top 25 on Beatport charts in their respective genres, including #21 on Mainstage, 13 & 11 on Funky Groove, and #6 in Afro House. When he is not touring or playing for some of the biggest nightclub venues, festivals, or beach clubs around the world, Lohrasp uses his monthly radio show "House Keeping Radio" as a platform to showcase and hone his musical talents as a media personality, curator, and overall top-notch DJ with a keen ear for good music. Kansara is also an accomplished actor with roles on Power Book III: Raising Kanan, The Blacklist, The Looming Tower, and Limitless, to name a few. He co-wrote, produced, and starred in his own short film called Day Zero, which received a quote from Oscar-winning director/writer James Ivory and was selected for the CIFT Film Festival of Toronto.

In addition, Kansara started his own high-quality athleisure clothing line called The Dream is Alive, inspired by this same ethos that is near and dear to his heart. As an avid basketball player and fan of the sport, he moved to NYC at an early age to pursue a professional career. He played in college for some time before ultimately turning his focus to music and acting. Kansara has exciting upcoming projects and releases, including an international cross-genre collaboration between himself, legendary German artist Moguai, and Jamaican Dancehall icon Busy Signal, which will be released at the end of this month. He also has a huge collaboration with Tech House/Latin House artist Jude & Frank this summer. Lohrasp Kansara's unique blend of talents and dedication to his craft make him an artist to watch in the ever-bubbling entertainment industry.
