LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA, UNITED STATES, April 15, 2023

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Sean has a dream job. He is an editor who evaluates and reviews new cars for several automotive magazines. But he points out that no matter your career, there are always challenges. In the latest episode of "I Am a Scientologist" on the Scientology Network, this New Zealand native takes viewers for a ride in a BMW X3 and describes how Scientology has helped him navigate the kinds of situations we all have to deal with in the 9-to-5 world.

In another vignette, meet Andrea, an Italian who moved to America with his family and works in their architectural lighting manufacturing company. Andrea says Scientology means everything to him. "It gave me the power to know that I can really do anything I want in life," he says, along with "the power to make that choice."

"I Am a Scientologist" features Scientologists from all walks of life and locations whose lives have been transformed and enriched by the religion. This episode spans the gamut from a mobile veterinarian who brings
