The project aims to address the growing need for employee well-being in the workplace, as research has shown that exposure to nature and greenery can have a positive impact on mental health, productivity, and overall satisfaction. By bringing nature indoors, companies and businesses can create a more inviting and comfortable work environment that fosters creativity, collaboration, and a sense of community.

Ilona, the owner of Blumenatelier Ilona Sarl, said, "We are excited to launch this new project that will help companies and businesses transform their workspaces into healthier, more inspiring, and more enjoyable environments. Our team of experts will work closely with our clients to understand their needs and preferences and provide tailored solutions that fit their unique requirements."

The project includes a wide range of services, including the design, installation, and maintenance of plants and flowers, as well as regular watering, fertilization, pruning, and cleaning.

Blumenatelier Ilona Sarl will also offer advice on the selection of plants and flowers that best suit the lighting and humidity conditions of each workspace, ensuring optimal growth and health.

"We believe that introducing fresh plants and flowers in corporate offices and reception areas is an effective and affordable way to improve employee well-being and satisfaction. Our team is committed to providing top-notch services that exceed our clients' expectations and deliver beautiful and healthy results that last," said Claude Esch from Blumenatelier Ilona Sarl.
