

Trail'd Announces the Release of Innovative Spare Tire Water Tank

Trail'd, a company dedicated to serving the overlanding community, has launched its spare tire water tank designed for adventurers.

UNITED STATES, May 13, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Trail'd has introduced a product in the vehicle-based adventure market, which has been starting to build attention from customers and industry publications, such as OutdoorX4.

The Trail'd spare tire water tank offers a convenient and adaptable option for overlanding, adventure, and open road aficionados.

OutdoorX4 commented on the Trail'd spare tire water tank, stating, "This is one of the most innovative solutions for the vehicle-based adventure space in over a decade."

Created to fit into the spare tire space of any vehicle with a center lifting hoist compatible with a 29" or larger tire, users can carry 6, 12, or 18 gallons of water without requiring elaborate mounting systems or modifications.

As Trail'd evolves, the company has undergone a rebranding process with the support of Nth Talent Founder Blake Brinker and has already worked with industry partners like Krave Automotive, AT Overland, and onX Offroad to improve the customer experience.

Brandon Pride, CEO of Trail'd, said, "Trail'd aims to create innovative products for off-road exploration that are durable and reliable." Brian Becker, the founder, designed the Trail'd tank to allow travelers to embark on their adventures with assurance, knowing their water storage needs are addressed and they can focus on enjoying the journey."
