

The Dolphin Company Was Present at the Tianguis Turístico 2023

In this 47th edition of the Tianguis Turístico, the 32 states of the Mexican Republic participated with more than 600 exhibiting companies.

MEXICO CITY, MEXICO, April 17, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Dolphin Company, a worldwide park operator, announced that it was present during the Tianguis Turístico 2023, the business forum based on pre-arranged appointments between buyers and exhibitors that was held March 26-29 at the Citibanamex Center in Mexico City.

The Tianguis Turístico is the most important event in Mexico's tourism sector, bringing together thousands of professionals who promote a wide variety of products that show why Mexico is recognized as a tourist destination of excellence both nationally and internationally.

In this 47th edition of the Tianguis Turístico, the 32 states of the Mexican Republic participated with more than 600 exhibiting companies, including hotels, airlines, etc., and more than 700 buying companies, including tour operators, wholesalers, travel agents, among others, from five different continents.

"During this edition, we estimate that we had more than one hundred appointments with buying companies, through which we managed to enhance the name of Mexico as the best choice of tourist destination worldwide, thanks to the richness of its biodiversity, culture, and traditions. We are proud to be part of this important event that allows us to contribute positively to the reputation and economy of our country, by offering fun, safe and innovative activities in important destinations in Mexico," said Claudia Sosa, Chief Commercial Officer of The Dolphin

Company.

The Dolphin Company is a company that recognizes Mexico as a world-class tourist destination, which is why almost half of the parks, habitats, marinas, and water parks that belong to its family are located within the Mexican Republic, specifically in the states of Quintana Roo, Jalisco and Nayarit.
