CHARLOTTE , NC, USA , April 17, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Authors who want to build their brand through book awards have a new option: The Four Seasons Book Awards from Atlas Elite Publishing Partners. The book award goal is to support authors on their writing journey and to help give their brand a boost through prize awards that help with book publishing and sales. Conducted annually, the Four Seasons Book Awards honors independently published titles from around the world.

Michael Beas, CEO, said, "I always put myself in the authors' shoes and ask myself what I can do to build their brand. One of the best options is book awards. An award badge helps with branding and brings instant prestige to the author and his/her work," he said. "The Four Seasons Book Awards was recently established to support authors of all genres who want recognition for their literary works. The book awards help authors to expand their reach and receive awards for their writing. It is a great way to win prizes, have social media activation points, and be part of a larger community of writers."

Open to authors of all genres, the First Annual Four Seasons Book Awards 2023 Spring Edition is now accepting submissions.

The selection process:

A panel of book experts selected by Atlas Elite Publishing Partners will look at all books submitted in each category. Books are judged on many different factors that include but are not limited to, style, writing technique, reviews, started reviews, book covers, and the author's online presence. Winners are notified by email.

Important dates:

Spring Edition: Submissions open on March 20, 2023, ends June 21, 2023
