Diane Peterson

Diane Peterson has had an impressive career spanning over four decades as a professional stuntwoman. She has worked on over two hundred movies and television shows, including popular titles such as Titanic, Laundromat, Green Hornet, Batman Forever, Marked for Death, Out for Justice, Robocop II, and Airplane. Her television credits include Walker, Texas Ranger, Fall Guy, MacGyver, and Magnum P.I.

Raised in Elmwood Park, New Jersey, Diane was inducted into the Athletic Hall of Fame in 2017. She graduated from the University of Miami, where she was crowned Homecoming Queen. After a brief stint as a Playboy Bunny in New Jersey and London, Diane started her acting career in New York City. However, while working on the set of Kojak, a television series starring Telly Savalas, she discovered her passion for stunt work.

Diane was the first woman to be inducted into the East Coast Stuntmen's Association and later moved to Los Angeles to pursue her dream. She quickly gained recognition in the industry, and her career skyrocketed. Diane served as the President of the Stuntwomen's Association Inc. for seven years and received a Stunt Award for Best Fight Sequence in the film Bachelor Party and a Television Movie Award for Best Stunt Coordinating of Killer in the Mirror.

Her journey in the world of action stunts has been filled with adventure, joy, heartbreak, and overcoming her fears. Diane hopes to inspire others to pursue their dreams and live their best lives.
