The partnership between Jerome Baker Designs and WhiteCloud Botanicals brings together two companies committed to excellence and innovation. WhiteCloud

Botanicals' innovative use of technology allows them to optimize the growth of each plant, resulting in the highest quality flowers. WhiteCloud Botanicals uses Nitrogen sealing to preserve the plants' natural terpenes and cannabinoids, ensuring the product remains fresh and potent during packaging and delivery.

WhiteCloud Botanicals also utilizes artificial intelligence to tailor the environment of each grow unit to the unique demands of each plant. This level of customization ensures that each plant receives precisely what it needs to thrive, resulting in consistent and exceptional quality across all strains.

The collaboration between Jerome Baker Designs and WhiteCloud Botanicals allows for the introduction of three different strains to the market: Jealousy, LA Kush Cake, Biscotti Mintz. Each strain has been carefully crafted with a focus on delivering a unique experience to the consumer. The strains have been curated to offer something for everyone, from novice to experienced cannabis users. The artificial intelligence allows WhiteCloud Botanicals to recreate grow plans and specific environments which result in greater product consistency.

WhiteCloud Botanicals is proud to introduce their line of packaging, which is made from recycled metal. WhiteCloud Botanicals has always been committed to sustainable and environmentally friendly practices, and this new packaging is a reflection of that commitment. By using recycled metal, WhiteCloud Botanicals is able to reduce their carbon footprint and minimize their impact on the environment. Additionally, the metal packaging is both durable and stylish, giving customers a premium and sustainable option for their cannabis products. Overall, the use of recycled metal in their packaging is just one of the ways that WhiteCloud Botanicals is leading the way in sustainable practices in the cannabis industry.

Jade Dispensary, one of the premier dispensaries in Las Vegas, is thrilled to host the launch party for Jerome Baker Designs' cannabis line. The spacious and welcoming environment provides the perfect backdrop for attendees to learn more about the products and have a chance to meet the Jerome Baker Designs Cannabis team and WhiteCloud Botanicals.

The logo for WhiteCloud Botanicals features the brand name in a sans-serif font. The word "WHITE" is in green, "CLOUD" is in white, and "BOTANICALS" is in a smaller white font below. A stylized white plant with roots is positioned between "WHITE" and "CLOUD".
