TORONTO, ONTARIO, CANADA, April 18, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Embark on a thrilling journey with Raphael Pumpelly, a young mining engineer, as he sets out to explore the wild and untamed mountains of Arizona in 1860. In Raphael Pumpelly's Arizona: The Frontier Adventures of a Young Mining Engineer, author Storms masterfully narrates Pumpelly's incredible journey filled with challenges, discoveries, and encounters with a diverse cast of characters, from miners and ranchers to bandits and raiding Apaches.

Raphael Pumpelly's Arizona: The Frontier Adventures of a Young Mining Engineer

As Pumpelly navigates the rugged terrain and overcomes obstacles, he rises to become a renowned geologist, a consultant to foreign governments, and a pioneering researcher in geoarchaeology. His experiences in Arizona have become a valuable source of information for historians of the Grand Canyon State in the years between the Gadsden purchase and the start of the Civil War.

For readers seeking an enthralling read that combines historical facts with thrilling adventures, Raphael Pumpelly's Arizona is an excellent choice that is not to be missed. The book was recently announced as a finalist for a Western Writers of America Spur Award in the Biography category.

C. Gilbert Storms is an experienced author, teacher, and researcher. He has a Ph.D. in English and has worked as a technical writer for eight years, and taught American literature and writing for almost 30 years at Miami University in Ohio. He is also the author of Reconnaissance in Sonora: Charles D. Poston's 1864 Exploration of Mexico and the Gadsden Purchase and currently resides in Tucson, Arizona.
