

Educator Shirell Warren-Stout Aptly Describes Her Life-changing Transition from Childhood to Adulthood

A lovely tale about development, the lessons learned along the way, fond recollections of childhood, and the realities of growing up

COOKSTOWN, NEW JERSEY, UNITED STATES, April 18, 2023

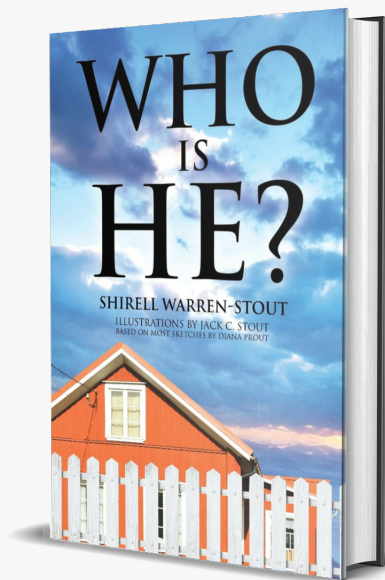

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Coming-of-age experiences are a part of life for adults now and in the future. "Who Is He?" by Shirell Warren-Stout is a thought-provoking story that invites the reader to consider their own ideas about what is frivolous and what is truly important, meaningful, and unchanging in life.

The author of this amazing tale has been an Educator for over 20 years.

She had taught various grades both in the United States and overseas. She became an educator in South Korea, Togo (West Africa), and Saudi Arabia. She has excellent organizational skills, class management skills, and critical thinking skills. She had also taught many long terms substitute teaching assignments ranging from one week to nine months. She is a writer, and she has recently published her second book, "WHO IS HE?" which is available on Amazon, Barnes & Nobles, and iTunes.

The book revolves around the journey of a young city girl of Generation "X" status. As she traversed, she will discover her initial symbol of what is important to what is unchanging. Our young city girl will not be alone in her journey. We have Aunt Wilma, Cousin Patrice, and Cousin Tiger, friends, teachers, and people we can only see from afar along for the ride. There are the quintessential effects of the 1970s and 1980s such as 8 tracks and neon colors. Yes, this is somewhat a period piece of fiction. Nevertheless, the author hoped that those who are before, during, and after this time period will relate to the story on some level. This story covers a little over a decade of the protagonist's life, primarily in two-year intervals. The story, as the title suggests, is a question that the protagonist struggles to answer. Some questions in life are simple yet infinite. Our city girl's question is the latter. There are plenty of references to pop culture and even a few historical events. However, keep in mind the question, "Who is he?"

Shirell Warren Stout's book is far more than just an entertaining and engaging story. It also invites each of its readers to reflect on their own life priorities and reassess the metrics by which they judge the merit and value of those things deemed most meaningful.

Meet Shirell Warren Stout with her thought-provoking book, Who Is He?, at the Los Angeles Times Festival of Books exclusively with The Reading Glass Books located at the Black Zone in the University of Southern California Campus on April 22, 2023, from 3:30 P.M. to 5:30 P.M.

To get the latest update on authors, book events, publishing, and marketing opportunities, like and follow The Reading Glass Books on Facebook.

About The Reading Glass Books

The Reading Glass Books is your local bookstore with a heart and now an emerging self-publishing house. We believe that each book is an experience, and we take that into heart as we celebrate both writers and readers manifested on our bookshelves—becoming part of everyone's reading journey since 2020.

Please visit www.readingglassbooks.com for more information.

Lyn Goot

The Reading Glass Books

support@readingglassbooks.com

Visit us on social media:

Facebook

Twitter

Instagram

YouTube

---

This press release can be viewed online at: <https://www.einpresswire.com/article/628642951>

EIN Presswire's priority is source transparency. We do not allow opaque clients, and our editors try to be careful about weeding out false and misleading content. As a user, if you see something we have missed, please do bring it to our attention. Your help is welcome. EIN Presswire, Everyone's Internet News Presswire™, tries to define some of the boundaries that are reasonable in today's world. Please see our Editorial Guidelines for more information.

© 1995-2023 Newsmatics Inc. All Right Reserved.