

PRA Continues Growth with New Talent

PRA adds new talent to multiple offices

MILWAUKEE, WISCONSIN, UNITED STATES, April 25, 2023

/EINPresswire.com/ -- PRA Continues Growth with New Talent

Innovative architecture and interior design firm Plunkett Raysich Architects, LLP (PRA) announces that Grant Heimerdinger, Cameron Neubauer, Zachary Hollman-Rodrigue, Timothy Villwock, Melanie Gray-Trier, David Burdwood, and Joseph Pautsch have recently joined PRA.

Grant, Cameron, Zachary, Timothy, and Joseph are joining PRA's Milwaukee Education Studio under the leadership of Nicholas Kent and Devin Kack as project specialists. Within this studio, they will touch all aspects of projects assisting PRA's Project Designers, Architects, and Project Managers in initial site conceptualization and building schematic design through the production of construction documents and construction administration.

We are excited to see the new ideas they will bring to our clients, and how they will help to shape our culture. Their experiences and positive attitudes will have a lasting impact on the work we do.”

Scott Kramer, Managing Partner

Melanie is joining PRA's Milwaukee Healthcare Studio under the guidance of Kevin Broich as a project specialist. In the healthcare studio, she will help develop innovative solutions and translate them to clients using a variety of modeling tools, refine building information modeling (BIM) models, and review Contractor Submittals.

David is joining PRA's Florida Office under the direction of John Holz as a Project Executive, where he will help the team with a wide array of project types. On projects, he will work with the team to develop specifications, working drawings utilizing our building information modeling tools, and assist through the construction administration process.

“We are excited to see the new ideas these young practitioners will bring to our clients, and how they will help to shape our PRA culture. Their experiences, education, and positive attitudes will have a lasting impact on the work we do, and we look forward to a bright future with them at OnePRA” Scott Kramer, Managing Partner.
