

Clinical Trial Management System Market is Anticipated to Expand at a CAGR of 12.8% by 2030 | Bioclinica, Medrio, Inc

BURLINGAME, CALIFORNIA, UNITED STATES, April 19, 2023

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Coherent Market Insights announces the release of the report "Clinical Trial Management System Market Size, Share & Trends Analysis Report By Solution Type, By Delivery Mode, By End-user, By Region And Segment Forecasts, 2023 - 2030"

The global clinical trials management system market size is anticipated to reach US$ 2,044.0 Million by 2030, expanding at a CAGR of 12.8% from 2023 to 2030. The key factors driving the market growth include the rising number of clinical trials, digitalization across healthcare R&D, the growing number of decentralized trials, and product enhancements. The Clinical Trial Management System (CTMS) offered by Simple Trials, for instance, includes features such as contact management, calendar & monitoring, project planning, document management & eTMF, contract & payment system, subject tracking, visit report authoring & letter generation, EDC integration, and reporting and business analytics.

A clinical trial management system (CTMS) is a software solution that manages clinical trials. The solution helps manage clinical trials, including time planning, trial subject recruitment, data capture and tracking, the database for investigators and research sites, billing compliance and budget management.

The clinical trial management system facilitates the operation of traditional, hybrid and decentralized clinical trials. The system improves clinical study reconciliation and data quality. The system provides interoperability with other e-clinical applications, thus increasing the visibility and transparency of clinical trial information. The system also ensures compliance with guidelines, legal protocols, and standards.
