The escalating demand for ready-to-drink (RTD) beverages, on account of the hectic work schedules of consumers, is primarily augmenting the fruit juice market across the globe. Additionally, the rising adoption of healthier drinks, like fruit juices, owing to the elevating consumer awareness regarding the harmful effects associated with the consumption of carbonated beverages, is also propelling the market growth. Furthermore, various leading manufacturers are introducing fruit juices with no colors, preservatives, or artificial additives, which is acting as another significant growth-inducing factor.

Apart from this, the launch of fruit juices in exotic flavors fortified with functional ingredients, such as probiotic bacteria, omega-3 fatty acids, bioactive compounds, etc., is positively influencing the market growth. Moreover, several other factors, including the increasing availability of fruit juices across online and offline retail channels, extensive R&D activities to enhance packaging techniques for juices, and inflating disposable incomes of individuals, are expected to fuel the growth of the global fruit juice market in the coming years.
