Growth in number of millionaires and swathes of millennial population have developed a voracious taste for luxury yachts in the past few years. Featuring helipads, swimming pools, saunas, hot tubs, and more, yachts are epitome of luxury. The new generation increasingly focuses on pursuing rare, tailored experiences over accumulating things. With on-board beach toys, such as motorboats & jet skis, top-deck Jacuzzi, lavish swimming pools, and private screening rooms, yachts represent pinnacle of luxurious life.

The luxury yacht market remained one of the few bright spots in an otherwise troubled global economy. With strong underlying drivers such as rise in ultra-net worth individuals, surge in inclination toward recreational & expeditions, and rise in trend of yacht tourism, the market is expected to witness significant growth during the forecast period. At the same time, the sector is facing challenges driven by high maintenance cost, stringent rules and regulations, and rapid technological innovation.

Luxury yachts have been introduced and have been sailing on the seas since the early twentieth century. Since then, designs have got better, bigger, more adventurous, and more extravagant. Improved design, style, comfort, liveability, technological innovations, and performance drive the growth of the luxury yacht market. Large yachts are now getting easier to handle. Hydraulics and push-button electrics allow loads to be managed reliably and have created all new possibilities for managing large size luxury yachts easily. Furthermore, thrusters at both bow and stern have resulted in better maneuverability, while advances in deck-gear technology have made sail-handling much easier. High customization according to the owners specifications have remained one of the key aspects of luxury yacht industry. Luxury yacht customers demand jet skis, tenders, and other popular water sports equipment for recreational purposes. Furthermore, DJ booths and floating perspex dance floors gain huge traction amongst luxury yacht manufacturers.
