precinct's parking lot is her identical twin, Senior Agent Fran Morris. As the two sisters team up to solve the crime and uncover the truth about their past, they find themselves entangled in a web of lies, deception, and danger. "How Could It Be?" is a page-turner packed with action scenes, surprises, and a touch of romance.

Xiomara Rodriguez was the first Hispanic female to serve in the unit. After retiring, Rodriguez cofounded Tu Casa Latina, a non-profit organization that supports immigrant women, men, and children who are victims of domestic violence, violent crimes, and human trafficking in Northern Nevada. She has also been a published writer for many years, with her stories and poems appearing in various magazines.
