

May 10 New York Presentation Showcases Expert Discussion on Tax Policies Facing Congress, Impacts on Family Businesses

Capitol Hill Expert Panel Dissects Policies That May Harm Family Businesses

NEW YORK, NEW YORK, UNITED STATES, April 21, 2023

/EINPresswire.com/ -- A panel of Washington DC experts and influencers will be discussing the potential for damaging new tax policies on family businesses, in a presentation to be held here May 10.

The luncheon presentation will address the State of Family Business and the Critical Tax Issues Impacting Them.

This special event will provide a Capitol Hill insider's perspective, critical intelligence, and awareness of the key tax policy issues family-owned businesses face. It will be attended by a group of distinguished business leaders, family office executives, and financially successful families.

The panelists include Russ Sullivan, Chair, National Tax Policy Group, Brownstein Hyatt Farber Schreck and Brandon Román, Partner, Public Policy and Financial Services & Tax Policy Groups, Squire Patton Boggs. John Gugliada, Director, Family Enterprise USA and John Marino, Director, Policy and Taxation Group, will moderate the event.

The event is co-hosted by MPI, Squire Patton Boggs, Policy and Taxation Group (PATG) and Family Enterprise USA (FEUSA). The Wednesday, May 10 Luncheon Presentation will be held from 12 – 1:30 p.m. in mid-town Manhattan.

The expert panel of government relations professionals from Washington DC will unveil the results of the new FEUSA 2023 Annual Family Business Survey and discuss the current legislative tax landscape.

In addition, the experts will provide a legislative update on tax policy issues impacting successful families, family offices and family businesses. The group will also address voter attitudes influencing legislation and the newly formed Congressional Family Business Caucus.

Please confirm attendance by contacting John Marino, who will provide the address. He can be reached at (202) 750-0248 or jmarino@policyandtaxationgroup.com.
