Launches, Invites Vendors and Buyers to Join as Preferred Partners

The only true marketplace for hospitality industry offers opportunity to sell goods on common website

Hospitality Deals is thrilled to announce its launch and is inviting companies to become certified hospitality vendors. Hospitality Deals has already been recognized as a top hospitality resource in the industry with the best deals from vendor partners.

In order to become a vendor, companies can register to have a common storefront to sell their living centers.

Some of the most requested hospitality supplies and goods include bath, bedding, cleaning, technology, maintenance, housekeeping, restaurant, furniture, office, lobby, signage and services.

For instance, regular customers request popular items on the website. This can range from several sizes of hotel safes to fit all types of closets or wardrobes. There are top-of-the-line room Wi-Fi routers, security cameras, speakers and complete housekeeping carts with all necessary compartments for soaps and shampoos, towels and cleaning supplies. Restaurant supplies range from glasses, mugs and cutlery to chef aprons and other items.

"We pride ourselves on bringing vendors and buyers great value," said the spokesperson for Hospitality Deals. "We are known as the 'Amazon for hospitality' and make it so easy for your customers to order from you on the common, central website. Ordering is easy. Creating a storefront and getting franchise approval is easy. For a limited time, there is neither an entry fee nor a monthly fee. Our success is measured by your success."
