"Fast forward to the studio with the guys and the energy they brought was incredible! It totally took a different turn that I absolutely love, and apparently radio does too!"

Written by Nash Overstreet, Ryan Folllese and Will Carter, "Sway" paints

What's your drink and what's your name, baby
Looks like the boat we're in's the same, ain't it
Well, if you're single girl can I change it
Tonight

Come on and sway with me darling

Will Carter Band - Sway

Feel that fiddle calling
Ain't it better when you're holding me close
Come on and sway to the rhythm
This is what was missing
It's a lonesome sound I think we both know
Come on and sway
Come on and sway

Praise for the Will Carter Band

"A leading entertainer across the Lone Star State." – Markos Papadatos, Digital Journal

"Will Carter has done everything required to craft a solid music career. He started young, sang his heart out, worked hard, wrote good songs and milked goats."-Houston Press

About Will Carter Band

Katy, Texas born and bred, Will Carter launches his electric live show to national stages as he continues to herd accolades across the Lone Star State for his songwriting and performance career. This country singer and songwriter has landed over a dozen singles on the Texas music charts with three crossing over to Nashville's Music Row Chart. Carter's appetite for storytelling and engaging sets earned him four consecutive nominations for "Male Artist of the Year" at the Texas Country Music Awards.

Carter accredits his hard-won success to his tight-knit family. Between homeschooling, breaking horses, milking goats and tending crops, young Will had to carve out time between his chores to hone in on his songwriting and guitar skills. Judging from family scrapbooks, Will took his first stage at age three and picked up the guitar at age ten.

When Carter was just a teen, his father became severely ill. He created a playlist of his father's favorite songs to share with his dad in hopes of providing some comfort and an escape for him. Seeing the initial impact from the music, Will recorded these songs and sold CDs to help raise money for his family. This creative and active way of assisting his family landed him on the Debra Duncan television show when he was just 13. Those songs were played for his father every day until he passed. The peace, comfort, and inspiration of that period would serve as the catalyst for Carter's songwriting and performance career.

Carter bravely pursued his passions kick starting his professional career in 2016 after a stint with Texas dance hall headliners The Emotions. His debut album, "Good Bad Idea," in 2019, laid the foundation for his sound paving a lane on the sonic highway blazed by headliners Mark Chesnutt, Jack Ingram & Easton Corbin. Since then, Carter has been actively touring with his band, performing 150-200 shows each year. Will's confident, high-energy performances are a country music tour de force appealing to music fans of all ages and putting industry eyes on this remarkable emerging talent.

For four consecutive years, Carter was awarded "Songwriter of the Year" at the Texas Country Music Association Awards. He has opened for Cody Johnson, Randy Rogers, Bart Crow, Jack Ingram, Larry Gatlin, Saints Eleven, Josh Ward, Cody Canada, and played SXSW. Carter and his music have been featured on podcasts such as The Troubadour, The Sports Guys, and Scenes Live. His releases can also be heard on radio stations nationally with particularly heavy airplay in Texas and surrounding states.
