Stephanie Hines Coaching founder recognized for supporting other businesses, her community

WOODSTOCK, GA, USA, April 25, 2023 /

EINPresswire.com/ -- Stephanie Hines Coaching was voted Woodstock's Alignable Local Business Person of the Year for 2023 - the second time the business and marketing coach received the honor for supporting businesses in her community.

"One of the easiest things, that comes so naturally for me is to give gratitude, a compliment, champion, and support the people I know, love and trust!" said Stephanie Hines, considered "Highly Recommended" according to her Alignable profile. "I am grateful for the network of small business owners who took the time to vote for me. The fulfillment that comes from working together and helping one another is inspiring."

Alignable is the largest online referral network for small businesses in North America with almost 8 million members. The organization called this year's competition "a virtual love fest for small business owners who go out of their way to help others" with a 61 percent spike in participation and a 55 percent increase in winners. Hines is one of almost 4,000 local business people recognized in their communities.

"Stephanie is upbeat and dives deep into our business," wrote Jason Love, CEO of Quick Response Fire Protection, Inc. in Cartersville, Georgia and an Alignable member. "She is always helping us strategize and come up with new ideas to grow."

Stephanie Hines Coaching helped Quick Response Fire Protection scale from a 6-figure company to 8-figures within a five year period. Known internationally for her novel approach, Hines creates custom strategies to scale small- and medium-sized businesses to 6, 7 and 8-figures,
