POLAND, April 24, 2023

/EINPresswire.com/ -- BLUETTI, a powerful leader with clean energy solutions, is about to release its latest power stations, which includes AC60, B80, AC180, and other popular energy storage systems, at GREENPOWER IREF 2023, which will be held for professionals in the field of renewable energy sources, in Poland, from May 16 to May 18, 2023.

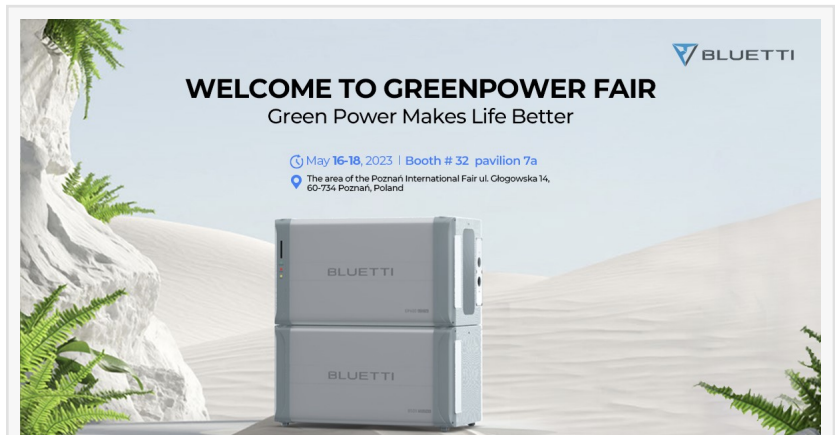

After years of researching and developing, BLUETTI has been keeping finding and improving more energy storage & reuse solutions, and will present the world with the following products of BLUETTI 2023 brand new series, to level up everyone's sustainable life.

AC60

AC60 redefines the energy storage system - Liquids and dust can hardly get inside due to its design of independent air tightness and vacuum-coated with a protective layer; Plus, it needs less time to charge, to ensure more time for fun. Only 1 Hour to Full Charge!

B80

More than an add-on to AC60, the B80 can work as a versatile power bank to charge EB3A, EB55, EB70, EB70S, AC50S, AC180, EB240, and EB150 through an aviation to DC7909 cable*.
