

The Reasons Most Businesses Fail: 7 Mistakes that Could Prove Fatal to your Growth and Bottom Line

Regardless of the industry, the mistakes tripping up business owners and affecting their growth trajectories and bottom lines are remarkably similar.

SYDNEY, NSW, AUSTRALIA, April 24, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- According to Soul Enchantress the globally sought after Sorceress, Seer, Shaman, Author and Business Speaker, her observations from working with Global Business Leaders are as follows:

Soul Enchantress' energetic concepts related to money and business are powerful, effective and gets results.

1. Business owners keep looking for the latest strategies, tactics and hacks, when in fact they don't need a new strategy. The reality is an invisible energetic block exists and it needs to be cleared before they can experience their goals and objectives.

My work is all about how to elevate your business to new heights of success by harnessing the invisible realms and ancient wisdom.”

2. Many businesses delay paying their bills because they believe they can earn more interest, are waiting for a new financial year, or due to a fear of not having enough. If business owners desire a smooth flow of money, energetically their bills must be paid on time.

3. The energy of employees or teams impacts a business both positively and detrimentally. Investing in wellness strategies to detoxify and strengthen employees and team's energy will improve a business' growth and bottom line.

4. When freebies and discounts are used as a tactic to attract customers to a business it diminishes the energetic value of the business, products and services. Instead, business owners should offer bonuses.

5. Many business owners fail to consult with results-oriented advisors or experts, instead they end up being overwhelmed listening to too many different ideas and reading too many opposing books. Many high-profile business leaders consult with a seer or shaman who can access inter-dimensional information and wisdom that impacts their business and reality.

6. Most people believe everything within their business (and life) is linear and physical. They are completely unaware of the incredible potential of the inter dimensionality of other vibrational frequencies that are available and can be harnessed to create a different reality for them and their business.

7. Business owners get caught up repeating detrimental ancestral patterns toward money, wealth and prosperity. They unwittingly tend to emulate the same energy patterns toward money as their parents, grand-parents, ancestors and sometimes carry behaviours from other lifetimes. The solution lies in identifying the core patterns, and replacing them with money magnetising energetic strategies.

Soul Enchantress works with global business leaders. She weaves the worlds of sorcery, cosmic, galactic realms, the earth, the afterlife, money, business and life into an intriguing and spellbinding tapestry, along with her clients who keep their work with her a secret.

According to Soul Enchantress, visionaries such as Steve Jobs, Coco, Chanel, Christian Dior, Winston Churchill, Nelson Mandela, Albert Einstein, Nikola Tesla (in spirit) and many others have helped present day business leaders craft strategies that have resulted in successful outcomes.

"I've been told by my clients, that my perspectives and energetic concepts related to money and business are powerful, effective and gets results. My work is all about how to elevate your business to new heights of dazzling success by harnessing the invisible realms and ancient wisdom."
